Please thoroughly read the Art in the Garden Escondido Policies and keep a copy for your records.
Answers to most common questions are covered in the policies. Thank you.

Art in the Garden is operated by the Escondido Downtown Business Association for the express purpose of enhancing and promoting the Arts in Escondido. The goals of Art in the Garden are: • to attract visitors to the Historic Downtown Escondido and the Grand Avenue Festival. • To increase awareness of the Downtown as a unique retail, dining and arts district. • To promote Downtown Businesses and our rich cultural environment.

Last year ushered in the professional live music elements that were planned for the 2020 and 2021 Festivals canceled due to covid restrictions. We continue to build this event into a more modern experiential street festival that local customers look forward to attending year after year, bringing more business to our loyal vendors.

The number of Artists showing a particular item/product may be limited at the discretion of the Art in the Garden Committee. However, there may be artists selling similar (not identical) artwork.
